

The Blessing of Benjamin

“And of Benjamin he said, The beloved of the LORD shall dwell in safety by Him; He covers him all the day long, and he dwells between His shoulders.” — Deuteronomy 33:12

In the name of Jesus, I declare over my life the blessing spoken over the tribe of Benjamin.

I declare that I am beloved of the Lord. I dwell securely in His presence, covered by Him continually, day and night. I am not exposed, vulnerable, or unprotected. I live between His shoulders—carried by His strength, sustained by His power, and upheld by His faithfulness. My life is hidden in God, and I walk in peace because He watches over me.

I declare that I live under divine covering and favor. The Lord surrounds me before and behind. He guards my mind, shields my heart, and establishes my dwelling place in safety. I do not live in fear of what surrounds me, because I am surrounded by Him. I am secure in every season, anchored in His presence, and confident in His protection.

I declare that I walk in holy boldness and courage. As Benjamin was known for strength and valor, I carry spiritual resilience and clarity. I am alert, discerning, and prepared for the assignments God places before me. I do not shrink back, retreat, or hesitate in obedience. I stand firm in truth, steady in pressure, and courageous in responsibility.

I declare that my steps are precise and ordered by the Lord. I move with discernment, wisdom, and accuracy. I do not act impulsively or recklessly. My decisions are rooted in truth, guided by understanding, and aligned with God’s purposes. I walk with clarity, not confusion, and confidence that comes from trust in the Lord.

I declare that I am positioned close to God’s presence. As Benjamin’s inheritance lay near the holy place, so my life is marked by nearness to God. I recognize His voice, respond to His leading, and remain attentive to His direction. My obedience flows from intimacy, and my strength flows from relationship.

I declare strength without aggression, authority without striving, and confidence without pride. I am disciplined, faithful, and dependable. I carry responsibility with humility and courage, trusting God to establish my steps.

I declare that I live with strategic awareness and spiritual readiness. I am attentive to the times and seasons in which I live. I am prepared to act when called, to stand when required, and to remain steady when others waver. I do not move ahead of God, and I do not lag behind Him. I move in alignment with His timing.

I declare that I am grafted into the covenant promises of Israel through Christ, and every promise of God over my life is Yes and Amen. The blessing of Benjamin rests upon me and my household—beloved identity, divine protection, courage, clarity, discernment, and peace.

I walk forward covered, confident, and secure. I am established in righteousness, strengthened by God's presence, and upheld by His hand. My life reflects the security of one who dwells near the Lord.

Blessed am I—beloved of the Lord, dwelling safely by Him, covered all the day long, and carried by His strength. In the mighty name of Jesus. Amen.
